CLIENT SECURITY BOARD APPROVES CLAIMS

ST. PAUL -- At its April 2016 meeting, the Minnesota Client Security Board approved payment of five claims, in the total amount of $15,732.86, against disbarred attorneys Linda A. Brost, Paul Roland Rambow and Erin Marie Wolff, and deceased attorneys John Allen Hatling and Gregory K. Larson.

The Board approved one claim against Linda A. Brost in the amount of $10,000. Brost last practiced law in St. Paul, Minnesota. She was disbarred by the Minnesota Supreme Court in July 2014.

The Board approved one claim against Paul Roland Rambow in the amount of $1,653.86. Rambow last practiced law in Minneapolis, Minnesota. He was disbarred by the Minnesota Supreme Court in February 2016.

The Board approved one claim against Erin Marie Wolff in the amount of $100. Wolff last practiced law in Eden Prairie, Minnesota. She was disbarred by the Minnesota Supreme Court in February 2012.

The Board approved one claim against deceased attorney John Allen Hatling in the amount of $1,979. The Board has now approved two claims against Hatling in the total amount of $4,721.65. Hatling last practiced in Fergus Falls, Minnesota.

The Board approved one claim against deceased attorney Gregory K. Larson in the amount of $2,000. The Board has now approved two claims against Larson in the total amount of $3,250. Larson last practiced in Little Falls, Minnesota.

The Client Security Fund was established by the Minnesota Supreme Court, and is funded by Minnesota attorneys to reimburse clients who suffer loss of money or other property from the dishonest conduct of their attorney. The Fund does not cover losses resulting from negligence of lawyers. The Fund is administered by a Board appointed by the Court, and consists of five lawyer members and two non-lawyer members. All serve without compensation as a public service.

For more information on the Client Security Fund, visit the Board's Web site at <http://csb.mncourts.gov>.
