

STATE OF MINNESOTA
IN SUPREME COURT
ADM10-8002

ORDER ESTABLISHING PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD ON PETITION FOR PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT ON LAWYER REGISTRATION

On March 24, 2025, the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education filed a petition recommending amendments to the Rules of the Supreme Court on Lawyer Registration. The proposed amendments would (1) allow inactive status lawyers and judges to request that their home address not be displayed in the Minnesota Attorney Registration System, and (2) detail practices prohibited while on inactive status. The petition and proposed amendments are available on the public-access site for the Minnesota Appellate Courts, under case number ADM10-8002 – Petition of the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education for Amendment of the Rules of the Supreme Court on Lawyer Registration (filed Mar. 24, 2025).

On May 20, 2025, we filed an order amending the Rules of the Supreme Court on Lawyer Registration based on the newly created State Board of Civil Legal Aid. Following that order, on June 2, 2025, the Minnesota State Board of Continuing Legal Education filed a supplement to their March 24 petition that incorporated our court's May 20, 2025 amendments and added an additional proposed amendment to the March 24 petition. See Letter – Lawyer Registration Rules Petition, filed March 24, 2025 (Court File ADM10-8002) (filed June 2, 2025).

The court will consider the March 24 petition and proposed amendments to the Rules of the Supreme Court on Lawyer Registration, as supplemented by the June 2 correspondence and attachments, after providing a period for public comment and reviewing any comments on the proposed amendments.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that any person or organization that wants to provide comments in support of or in opposition to the proposed amendments to the Rules of the Supreme Court on Lawyer Registration must file those comments with the Clerk of the Appellate Courts, consistent with the filing requirements of Minn. R. Civ. App. P. 125.01(a). All comments must be received by the Clerk's office no later than August 26, 2025.
