I. YEAR IN REVIEW.

Rule 1.10, Rules of the Minnesota Client Security Board, provides:

At least once a year and at such other times as the Supreme Court may order, the Board shall file with the Court a written report reviewing in detail the administration of the Fund, its operation, its assets and liabilities.

This thirty-seventh annual report of the Minnesota Client Security Board covers the Board’s fiscal year, FY2024, which began July 1, 2023, and ended on June 30, 2024.

The Client Security Board approved ten (10) claims this year involving five (5) attorneys, in the total amount of $43,716.86 (see Appendix 1, A. 1-2). These claims involved the following attorneys:

Attorney	No. of Claims	Amount
James V. Bradley	1	$940.00
Darrell G. Carter	1	$2,500.00
Gary A. Gittus	1	$1,500.00
Fong E. Lee	3	$19,316.86
Ignatius C. Udeani	4	$19,460.00

Twenty-three (23) new claims were filed. Seventeen (17) claims were carried over from the previous year. In addition to the ten (10) claims which were approved for payment, eleven (11) claims were denied. FY24 continued for the sixth fiscal year a recent string of low volume claim years. At the end of June 2024, eighteen (18) claims against eleven (11) different lawyers remain pending before the Board. In most instances, related disciplinary or civil proceedings are pending, completion of which the Board is awaiting prior to being able to resolve the claim. Seven (7) of the pending claims awaiting disciplinary resolution relate to one attorney. Overall, after 36 years of approving claims, the Board has now approved payment of $8,755,846.91 on 717 claims against 202 lawyers (see Appendix 4, A. 6-12).

The Fund continues to be fiscally healthy.

II. THE CLIENT SECURITY BOARD AND ITS PROCEDURES.

Board Members. As of June 30, 2024, the following individuals served on the Board (see Appendix 3, A. 4-5):

Name	City	Term Expires
Nathan B. Shepherd, Chair	Minneapolis	June 30, 2025 (second term)
Robert (Bo) Aylin	Northfield	June 30, 2025 (first partial term)
Cassandra J. Bautista	Eagan	June 30, 2024 (first partial term)
Hayley A. Howe	Afton	June 30, 2026 (first term)
Martha Sullivan Mayer	Eagan	June 30, 2026 (first partial term)
Beverly A. Moe	Bloomington	June 30, 2026 (first term)
Cheryl M. Prince	Duluth	June 30, 2026 (second term)

At its June 2024 annual meeting, Nathan Shepherd was re-elected as Board Chair. Nathan resides in Minneapolis and is beginning his sixth year of service on the Board.

During the current fiscal year, Hayley Howe, an MSBA nominee, was appointed to the Board for a first term. Attorney member Martha Sullivan Mayer was also appointed to a first term, as were public members Robert (Bo) Aylin and Beverly Moe. The Board is currently at full membership.

The MSBA nominates three of the five attorney members. Mr. Shepherd, Ms. Bautista and Ms. Howe serve as MSBA nominees. Mr. Aylin and Ms. Moe served as the Board's public members. The Board's liaison justice from the Court is Justice Margaret Chutich, who is retiring from the Court. Justice Gordon Moore will be the new liaison to the Board.

Funding and Budget Procedures. Currently, no portion of lawyer registration funds are allocated to the Client Security Fund as the fund remains sufficient to cover anticipated claims. In 1998, the Supreme Court recommended an informal range for the Fund of $1.5 million and $2.5 million, with the Board to report to the Court if the Fund falls, or is projected to fall, outside of these figures. The Board projects a fiscal year-end balance of approximately $3.7 million in June 2024. A reallocation of $1 million to the Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board approved in June 2019 was subsequently increased to $1.5 million in FY22. Of the $1.5 million allocated, $500,000 was disbursed to the OLPR/LPRB during FY24, leaving $1 million with the Board to continue generating interest income. This sum will be reallocated when needed as determined by State Court Administration Finance staff, but is likely to occur in FY25.

The Board does not directly handle any funds or the investment of the Fund. The Fund is composed of assessments collected through the Office of Lawyer Registration and placed into a segregated fund within the State Treasury. The Fund receives interest income which was higher than anticipated this year; in prior years, falling interest rates have generated less interest income than previously.

Based upon the information presently available to the Board concerning pending claims or known potential claims as well as historical budgeting practices, the Board budgeted $350,000 for claim payments next year. The Board budgeted $39,100 for all non-claim expenses, including staff services, supplies, equipment, and representation at national client protection conferences. Included in this amount is funding for a new website, which has been deferred for several years and is now in progress. The updated website, which will include an updated claim form and for the first time allow the filing of claims online, is expected to enhance public access (including mobile-friendly access) and provide additional information to the public. After research into the types of expenses allocated to similar funds, the State Court Administration has recommended that the Fund should bear a larger portion of the expenses currently being handled by the OLPR to more accurately reflect the true cost of administration of the Fund, as well as proactive benefits from work performed by the OLPR. As a result, the amount budgeted for non-claim expenses will increase. In most years, the Board has spent less than the budgeted amount on non-claim expense items. (Appendix 2, A. 3.)

Administration. The Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility provides staff services to the Client Security Board. Susan Humiston serves as Director of the Client Security Board. Managing Attorney Krista Barrie and Ethics Investigator Gina Brovege also provide services. Paralegal Julie Staum handles the day-to-day operations of the Fund including contact with respondents and claimants and investigation of claims. OLPR staff also provide administrative and bookkeeping services to the Board; substantive support is provided by the OLPR staff at an hourly rate.

Following each meeting, the Board issues a press release regarding claims approved pursuant to Board policy. The press releases are also posted on the Board's website to provide public information about the Board's activities at <https://csb.mncourts.gov>. The website contains answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs), the Board's rules, the claim form (in multiple languages), staff directory, copies of the current and past annual reports and an updated list of attorneys against whom claims have been paid, similar to that at Appendix 4 (A. 6-12). The website also has links to articles written about the Client Security Board.

The Minnesota Attorney General provides legal services to the Client Security Board in enforcing its subrogation rights against attorneys where claims have been paid, or against any third persons from whom payments may be legally obtained.

Assistant Attorney General Scott Grosskreutz represents the Board in subrogation matters. The Board pays no attorney fees for this representation, but is responsible for direct costs of collection efforts and litigation. Where appropriate, the Attorney General also assists the Board in being listed as a victim in criminal restitution orders. The Board thanks the Minnesota Attorney General and AAG Grosskreutz for the excellent representation of the Board.

Also as a part of the collection process, the Board may forward matters to the Minnesota Department of Revenue (MDOR), which has a division created to assist government agencies in their collection work. Although the Attorney General continues to handle most matters for the Board that are contested, or that appear capable of prompt resolution, other matters are referred to MDOR.

Recently, the Board engaged in a holistic review of its Rules and filed a rule change petition with the Minnesota Supreme Court after reviewing those proposed changes with various key stakeholders. Key proposed changes include extending the period of time in which a claim may be filed from three to five years and clarifying a claimant's obligation to exhaust administrative remedies. The Minnesota Supreme Court adopted many of the proposed rule changes, which go into effect on July 1, 2024.

Claims Procedure. Claims are initiated by the submission of a claim to the Director's Office on forms approved by the Board. The forms are provided to the claimant along with a brochure which explains the process. The claim form, brochure and copies of the Board's rules are also available via the Board's website. The claim form and brochure are available in English, Spanish, Hmong, Karen and Somali, and may be translated to other languages as necessary.

After a claim is submitted, the respondent attorney is provided an opportunity to respond in writing. The Board also has access to all lawyer disciplinary files, from which considerable information may be obtained.

Generally, attorney disciplinary proceedings against the respondent attorney will have been completed before any Client Security Fund payment is made. The Board relies heavily, although not exclusively, upon findings made in related lawyer disciplinary actions, or in related civil or criminal cases, whenever possible. The Board has no aggregate limit on the amount that may be paid per lawyer. The maximum payment per claim is $150,000, one of the highest limits in the country. It appears to remain a sufficient maximum amount.

If a claim is denied, the claimant and respondent are notified in writing of the Board's determination and reasoning. The claimant has the right to request reconsideration and a discretionary meeting with the Board, so that all claimants have a full opportunity to present the merits of their claim. Claim payment is a matter of discretion within the Board, which takes each claim very seriously keeping in mind the purposes of the Fund.

III. GOALS AND OBJECTIVES.

No major funding issues are anticipated this coming year, even considering reallocation of a large portion of the reserve. The Board has experienced members who continue to provide sound leadership, and the amount of funds in reserve appears to be sufficient to provide a generous pool from which qualifying claims can be satisfied. The Board remains generally caught up on its claims, with the claims that remain pending being new claims, or claims where related disciplinary proceedings are pending. The Board continues to monitor the efficacy of collection efforts against lawyers owing money to the Fund. The anticipated website update will provide the Board with the opportunity to refresh outward facing materials to ensure clarity of communications with the public regarding the purposes and availability of the Fund. The Board has identified outreach to the public and bar to promote the existence of the Fund as a Board priority.
